Hon. Vice Chancellor welcomed all the members to the meeting. After the detailed discussion, the following decisions were taken in the meeting.

1. The IQAC meeting reviewed in detail the progress of Jaivam 2017 project, being implemented on the campus, and decided to improve its working by making it more inclusive. It was agreed to direct the organizers to spread information about the project among the University community more vigorously.
2. The university's achievements in various fields need to be presented before society. Public events and exhibitions are suitable methods to achieve this. Therefore, the meeting decided to direct the university departments and centre to organize elaborate public events and ensure good public participation in them.
3. The meeting unanimously resolved to strongly recommend the establishment of e-class rooms in the University Schools and departments.
4. IQAC recommended the University to build an incubation eco system to nurture budding student start-ups. The Business incubation and Innovation Centre of the University shall engage with the schools and departments to filter out fresh talent.
5. It was decided to give direction to the university departments to organize more seminars, workshops and sessions in collaboration with industries and NGOs to ensure circulation of knowledge created in the university.

The meeting came to an end at 2 PM.
