Policy on Career Counselling

Policy on Career Counselling

The Mahatma Gandhi University is dedicated to educating, advising, and connecting students to opportunities in order to foster their intellectual, social and personal transformations. We believe in doing so we build drivers of change that will go out and be the light we need in this world today. For this purpose, the university shall constitute a Placement cell with a dedicated voluntary office bearer-in charge selected on rotation basis for a period of three years. A separate person may be named as Career Guidance officer.

Objective of Career Counselling:

- Career Counselling Shall helpour students in career planning through counselling wherein they gather information about themselves in terms of their interests, aptitudes and abilities so that they can choose their career more effectively.
- Through the placement cell, the university aims to support the students in developing their soft skills and increase their change of employability.
- The various departments of the university shall arrange campus recruitment drives by inviting corporates.
- In order to prepare the students for job fairs and campus placements, the department shall arrange programmes and activities to enhance the employability and holistic capabilities of the students and arrange to provide training resume building, group discussion and interview skills.
